

August 31, 1993

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I write this letter in support of Dr. Margaret Kay. I have known Dr. Kay and her work for over eight years and look forward to working with her extensively in the future.

In my work as an educational counselor I often require indepth psychoeducational reports on my clients. Although many professionals can provide these reports, they are not all useful. It takes a lot of time both with the client and subsequently with writing the report to provide the information that will serve the client's best interests. Dr. Kay consistently provides the kind of report that shows an immediate understanding of the client. Her reports are also written so that a school or college can see clearly where the strengths and weaknesses of a student lie.

Of course it is not just the written material that makes Dr. Kay such a helpful colleague. Her understanding and compassion regarding her clients lends an important aspect to each case. If I need a recommendation or any insight on a particular client, I can always count on Dr. Kay to respond promptly and appropriately. Recently a school called to thank me for the thorough report written by Dr. Kay and her subsequent follow up on the student. The school appreciated her work and wanted me to know.

If there is anything that I can add regarding Dr. Margaret Kay and her work with me do not hesitate to contact me. If it were not for her invaluable assistance, I could not do my own job as well. Thank you for your interest.

George C. Bennett